

ARAB COMMUNITY IN SACRAMENTO

Interviewee: Badia Wardany

Interviewer: Viviane Doche
Sacramento History Center
January 9, 1984

INDEX

SIDE A

0	Introduction
1:48	Immigration to United States: From Cairo, Egypt in 1969.
1:27	Occupation in Egypt and Educational Background
2:08	Reasons for coming to United States
6:34	Reasons for coming to Sacramento: Former students
6:59	First Residence in Sacramento
9:07	Getting in touch with old Egyptian friends
9:35	Seeking Employment
13:28	Birth of daughter: June 2, 1969
13:49	Making friends
16:40	New jobs
22:26	Returning to Egypt for rest
22:53	Taking State Exams: Husband is Veterinarian
24:14	Growth of Arab Community in Sacramento
26:15	Ethnic Clubs: OMEN meetings
27:54	Obtaining Middle Eastern cooking ingredients
29:27	More Clubs: Arab-American Club and American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee (ADC).

*****

INDEX

SIDE B

0	Clubs (cont.): Women's Club (SAAWA):
2:30	Efforts of Arab Community to maintain their culture
9:33	Islamic Code of Dress

INDEX

SIDE B (cont.)

- 11:45 Observance of Code of Dress by Muslim Women in Sacramento
- 15:10 Men's dress should also be modest
- 16:21 Other ways of maintaining Arab culture
- 19:18 Relations between Arab and Pakistani communities
- 20:22 Treatment by other Americans
- 21:21 The Arab family
- 24:51 Traditional family rituals: family prayers
- 27:05 Ties with the Homeland
- 29:02 Professional Arab-American Women in the Community
- 30:26 Patronizing Arab businesses